THE CITY OF BELGRADE>>

Belgrade is a modern European city with a population of about 1.7 million people. Built at the confluence of the Sava and Danube rivers, Belgrade is rightly known as “the Gate of the Balkans” and “the Doors to Central Europe”. It is an administrative, political and cultural center of Serbia. Belgrade is one of the oldest cities in Europe and has since ancient times been an important focal point for traffic and an intersection of the roads of Eastern and Western Europe. What gives Belgrade its unique identity is its location: it lies at the confluence of two large rivers, the Sava and the Danube, with popular promenades on their banks. This is an area lined with parks, dotted with many restaurants and cafés, most of them on river barges, with stunning views of the river and the city itself.

You can get to Belgrade by airplane, train, bus or car. Distance from Belgrade Nikola Tesla Airport to the city center is about 20 km. The fastest option is taking a taxi. Trip takes around 30 minutes and costs around 2.200 RSD (≈20 EUR). On the airport exit there is a Taxi information desk, where you can order taxi with the fixed price. You just have to say the address to the Taxi information desk officer, they will give you a voucher with fixed price and will be going with you right to the first available taxi driver.

GENERAL INFORMATION>>

CURRENCY: Serbian Dinar (RSD)

Conversion rate (RSD to EUR): The exchange rate ranges from 117.8 to 120 RSD for 1 EUR.

CLIMATE IN DECEMBER: December is a cold month in Belgrade with average temperature fluctuating between 0°C and 5.6°C.

LANGUAGE: Serbia has only one nationwide official language, which is Serbian. English is widely spoken.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT & TAXISERVICE

Public Transport: Belgrade public transport consists of buses, trolleybuses, and tram routes run by GSP "Beograd" and bus services operated by private bus companies, on around 130 routes.

Tickets can be bought:

- ❖ in public transport vehicles, from the driver or conductor;
- ❖ at kiosks marked with a ticket salessticker;
- ❖ at GSP points-of-sale.

Paper cards (most suitable for tourists):

If you are not a frequent user you can buy a paper card that costs RSD 89 (if purchased on the kiosk) or RSD 150 (if purchased on the bus) and drive with that card for 90 minutes on all lines (for 1st or 2nd public transportation zone).

Paper cards that you can use:

- ❖ 1 day for 1st or 2nd public transportation zone – RSD 250,
- ❖ 3 days for 1st or 2nd public transportation zone – RSD 700,
- ❖ 5 days for 1st or 2nd public transportation zone – RSD 1000.

Tickets must be validated immediately upon entry into the vehicle, using touch screen monitor machines installed at every vehicle, by each set of doors. The best way to navigate is to check the map available online from the GSP site. At some more prominent stops, you can find the same map only with marked lines available there.

Taxi Service: The passenger is only required to pay for taxi services according to the current price list and to the amount indicated by the taximeter at the end of the journey. Negotiating a price for taxi services, where the taximeter is not switched on, is not recommended, especially at the airport. TaxiГрадБеоград \(beograd.rs\))

CUISINE

The irresistibly delicious and very spicy Serbian dishes are a feast for all senses. The people of Serbia enjoy cooking and eating, often traditional dishes made according to old family recipes which are passed on from one generation to the next. The rich central daily meal in Serbia is always preceded by a tasty starter, followed by a broth or soup and then the main course made of vegetables and meat, boiled on slow-burning fire, baked in clay vessels, or roasted.

With Serbia being located on the crossroads between East and West, its cuisine has gathered elements from different cooking styles across the Middle East and Europe to develop its own hearty gastronomy with an intricate balance of rich meats, vegetables, breads, cheese, fresh pastries, and desserts. It has much in common with the cuisines of neighboring Balkan countries; its flavors are mild, fresh, and natural. Seasonings are usually salt, black pepper, and paprika, while ingredients are known for being fresh and high-quality.
